

Charlottesville Day School Earns $5,000 Award from Bama Works Fund

Special Grant Will Support CDS Scholarship Program

We are proud to announce that Charlottesville Day School is the recipient of a $5,000 award from the BAMA Works Fund of Dave Matthews Band in the Charlottesville Area Community Foundation. The award is based on a grant proposal submitted by the school that focused on gaining support for our scholarship program.

Twice each year, the BAMA Works Fund awards funding through a competitive grant cycle. On June 2nd, the CDS grant, as recommended by the Dave Matthews Band, was approved by the CACF Governing Board. The grant process included a first-round written proposal in addition to a site visit to the school by CACF officials.

“We are delighted to have been chosen by the BAMA Works Fund for this very significant award,” said CDS Head of School Stacey Bruns. “The Fund’s philosophy of providing extraordinary opportunities and working to ensure bright futures for our area’s young people dovetails perfectly with our own commitment to celebrating every child and challenging every learner. Our school is based on the premise that we work, learn, grow and thrive as a community. This grant strengthens the fabric of our community, and we are grateful for the support.”
